First Beer Party Issue

Sept. 23, 1967

Welcome to the first Beer Party of the '67 - '68 Drinking Season. I think that this season will be conducted on an even higher level than those of the past. Not only is the Drinking Season off to a good start, but Football, Darts, and the other important factors of fraternal life are also flying high. As far as academics go; they're going, too.

Finally, in a more serious sense, I think that with all the enthusiasm exhibited thus far into the semester Kappa Beta has a fine year in front of it and cannot miss having one of the best years of its thirty year existense.

Faternaly,

Jim Lucey

Congrats to Scot Merkelson and Roy Cameron on getting pinned.

Special congratulations to Dick Mastac and Pat Wheeler on their recent marriages.

Some belated awards:

DeNicolo - The Special Barf Award

For nine (9) blown lunches and two dry heaves-in one night.

Latrei - The Pigeon-Arm Award
